*Do you know someone affected by abortion?
Unsure how to help? Consider the PRC's
After Abortion Support Program.*

What is...

After Abortion Support?

The PRC's After Abortion Support (AAbS) provides a confidential, safe space for people to share and process their unique perspectives, thoughts, feelings, and emotions related to their abortion experience. Understanding that each person responds differently to an abortion, we seek to provide resources that meet an individual where they are in their journey. We are not here to judge how you are feeling. The key is to find a path to heal if you are hurting.

The PRC is here to walk alongside you without judgement. We understand many of the things you may be feeling. Our role is to actively listen to you, provide you with resources, support, and encouragement as you travel through your thoughts, feelings, and emotions. We are here for you, and we can be as flexible as you need. You are in control of your healing journey.

You are so brave, and you are not alone. We will be honored to walk alongside you. Please visit the following link to request healing resources: <https://bit.ly/afterabortionsupport>. This request can be made anonymously. You can also email admin@athensprc.com for more information.
